

CJ and her litter mates were found abandoned behind the Painted Earth store in Menifee. They were all very scared and not used to being handled. With time they have come around and now enjoy being petted and loved.