

Patches was abandoned by his family when they moved and left him behind. Chained to a stake in the yard, he was trapped, and left to starve.

Luckily a Menifee Valley Humane Society volunteer spotted him, and came to his rescue. Patches is now in his forever home with a loving family. He has kids to play with and give him lots of love and affection.